Invest Stockholm is a company, wholly owned by the city of Stockholm, that is responsible for promoting and developing Stockholm as a business and tourist destination under the brand Stockholm – The Capital of Scandinavia. Invest Stockholm works closely with the business community, academic, and other institutions, as well as with various organizations in the city, other municipalities, and federal agencies.

Svenska bostäder is a public company that owns 26 729 apartments, about 4 100 commercial premises, 1 187 student apartments and 5 shopping centres in Stockholm. Last year, we delivered 230 new apartments and began construction of further 919. We also invest €160 million annually in reconstruction and maintenance.

Business Sweden is commissioned by the Government to help Swedish companies grow global sales and international companies to invest and expand in Sweden. Two distinct roles with the same purpose – working as a team, our mission is to strengthen Sweden's position in the global economy.

Stockholmshem is one of Sweden's largest municipal housing companies. We provide homes for more than 50 000 Stockholm residents, in 27 500 apartments. For over 80 years, we have created new residential neighbourhoods and homes to Stockholmers. In 2019 our investments are expected to be over €235 million, of which €160 million will be used to build new homes.

SISAB is a public company owned by the city of Stockholm that owns, manages and develops 600 preschools and schools in Stockholm. With 1.8 square metres of educational facilities, we are one of the largest real estate owners in Sweden. Until 2022 we will invest €1.7 billion in construction of new schools and preschools, as well as expansion and development of our existing facilities.

Familjebostäder owns, develops and manages attractive rental housing units and non-residential properties that serve the needs of the people of Stockholm. Our vision is welcoming and smart living environments for today's and tomorrow's Stockholmers. Most of our real estate holdings are located in the southern districts of Stockholm.
